THE NEWARK MURDER .- The Jury in the case of the State of New-Jersey versus Thomas Marsh, last night brought in a verdict of guilty against the prisoner. He was remanded for sen-

We regret to have to announce the death of Ex-Gov. Joseph Duncan, of Illinois. This event took place at his residence, near Jacksonville, on Monday night last, after an illness of five or six days. He was an early citizen of Illinois-filled many public stations-was at one time Representative in Congress from that State, then her Governor; and was again, at the last general election, the Whig candidate for that office.

AFFRAYS AT NASHVILLE .- The Knoxville Register says, that, at Nashville, on the 2d inst., Judge Turley, one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of the State, offered a wanton insult to a highly respectable and amiable lady of Nashville. The fact being communicated to Major Turner, Clerk of the Circuit Court, who was a relative of the lady, he met the Judge on the Court-House steps and gave him a very severe caning. The Register adds, that, on the same day, Mr. Maxey, the Mayor at Nashville, was handled very roughly by a Mr. Payne.

Things in Philadelphia. Correspondence of The Tribune. PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 29-P. M.

FIRES .- The loss occasioned by the fire yesterday morning was far more extensive than I had at first supposed. The owners of the large oil, soap and candle factory, Messrs. Coffin & Laudell, were not insured, and their loss cannot fall short of $15,-000 to $20,000. Considerable damage was also done to the adjoining property, and at one time, owing to the cold which froze the water in the hose and engines, the conflagration threatened to be of the most disastrous character.

The scenes enacted between the members of the Independence Hose, Kensington Engine, and Northern Liberty Hose Companies, during the above fire, and in fact throughout the whole day, was disgraceful in the highest degree. Pistols, carpenter's tools. spanners, shot-slings, horns, iron bolts, and bludgeons of every kind, were used by the contending parties. A young man named Byerly was taken from the ground in a dying condition, having been felled to the earth with some heavy weapon. His life is now despaired of.

Alderman Clouds, and several other officers who interfered, were struck with stones which flew in every direction. Some twelve or twenty persons were more or less injured. A number of arrests were made, and the parties held to bail in $1000 each. I give the above as an item of news, not that I take pleasure in recording such disreputable scenes upon the Sabbath day.

The fire this morning about 10 o'clock was occasioned by the burning of a bake-house in Callowhill street, below 5th.

Wm. Lockhow, a colored man, was taken to the hospital last evening, having been seriously injured in a fight with some person unknown.

The account of a fatal street fight having occurred

The Invisible Wig so closely resembles the real head of hair that sceptics and connoisseurs have pronounced it the most perfect and extraordinary invention of the day. The great advantage of this novel and unique Wig is its being made without sewing or weaving, which causes its appearance so closely to reaemble the natural hair, both in lightness and natural appearance, as to defy detection, its texture being so beautiful, so porous and so free, that in all cases of perspiration evaporation is unimpeded, and the great evils of other Wigs entirely avoided. The sceptic and connoisseur are alike invited to inspect this novel and beautiful Wig, and the peculiar method of fitting the head, at the manufacturer's, A. C. With a Likeness of the Author. Price 25 Cents.

This is a most extraordinary book, and will, doubtless, produce a most profound impression. We talk not of what may be called the Reading Public, nor even the masses in Ireland, for whom, no doubt, a cheaper edition will be prepared, with a view to general circulation. The impression we speak of is that which must be felt by Statesinen—by Sir Robert Peel, by Lord John Russell, by M. Guizot and M. Thiers. That the volume will have an European and an American circulation, may be taken, considering the Author and the subject, as a matter of course. Next week, it not already published, it will be printed in English at Paris and at Brussels, and in a month there will be a translation, perhaps, too, into Frenck. We cannot doubt that German versions will appear in Berlin, Dresden, and in Munich: for the King of Bayaria, though a Legitimist, is a thorough Catholic. It will pass the Alps, too, and "the English in Italy" will have the satisfaction of reading O'Connell's History of Ireland in "choice Italian." We should not be surprised if the Emperor of Russia would command a Sclavonian translation, if only to show the Poles that there have been more horrid, more persevering, and more bloody persecutors of the Catholic Church than he has been. As to its circulation in America, we need not speak; there will be twenty editions in twenty weeks, and, no doubt the Meri-

As to its circulation in America, we need not speak; there will be twenty editions in twenty weeks, and, no doubt the Mexicans will speedily read the work in Spanish.

This, then, is a book universal; it will be read by all men, and in all literary languages, in the course of twelve months.

NEW CLAY MINSTREL.

The Clay Minstrel: or, National Songster, to which is prefixed a Sketch of the Life, Public Services, and Character of Henry Clay. By John S. Littel, President of the Clay Club of Germantown, Pa.

Advertisement to the First Edition.

"It occurred to the Editor of the Minstrel, that a publication upon the plan of that now offered to the public would be acceptable, and might be useful at the present juncture; and finding that his de ign was approved by friends whose political experience gave increased varies to their opinions, he prepared the brief and unpretending Sketch that follows, of the life of Mr. Clay. He takes pleasure in stating that he is much indebted to the researches of Mr. Prentice and of Mr. E. Sargest, whose comprehensive and interesting biographies are alike creditable to their talents and worthy of their subject; and all whose curiosity may be sharpened and excited by the imperfect glimpses of the ilitatrious Statesman, afforded through the following pages, will find in them more full and circumstantial information than could be embraced within the narrow limits and unambitious design of this jublication. From their works, and from auch other public sources as were immediately at hand, the torch of the Editor has received its feeble light, and he holds it aloft in the hope that it also may be instrumental, although in humble degree, in scattering the mists of prejudice with which ignorance and party rage have so long enveloped the subject, but which, even now, are gradually rising and rolling away beneath the influence of revealing light, and of that "truth which is mighty and will prevail."
